About the Anglican Theological Review

For over one hundred years, the Anglican Theological evaluate has been the unofficial journal of the seminaries of the Episcopal Church in the U.S. And the Anglican Church of Canada.

We are devoted to creative highbrow engagement with Christian subculture, and to interdisciplinary inquiry that consists of literature and the humanities, philosophy, and technological know-how. In the spirit of sound studying that marks Anglican divinity, we intention to foster scholarly excellence and thoughtful communique in and for the church.

The contents of the ATR are intended to be focally, however no longer exclusively, Anglican in subject matter and method. Authors belong to many traditions and groups. Essays posted inside the “Articles” section of the journal have been peer-reviewed.
