About the Australasian Journal of Early Childhood

Australasian journal of Early adolescence is published in partnership with Early formative years Australia (ECA). The Australasian magazine of Early formative years (AJEC) is Australasia's essential scholarly journal and the sector's longest-running fundamental magazine inside the early adolescence training and care quarter.

Posted quarterly, AJEC welcomes papers from a couple of theoretical and methodological orientations from a huge range of fields within the early years. AJEC invites original primary research, literature opinions and theoretical discussions that make contributions perception and/or proof to enhancing the lives, education, health and wellbeing of young children.
