About the British Journalism Review

"British Journalism evaluation is a completely unique forum for debate approximately the British Press. Its extended essays and interviews allow it to reach the elements of journalism that newspaper media pages cannot reach," Brian MacArthur, Media Commentator

"The British Journalism overview is a nicely-appeared publication, admirably with out corporate swank and uninfected through partisan connections to someone newspaper organization," Quentin Letts, day by day Mail columnist

“as it continues to assume growing importance in our tradition, journalism more than ever wishes crucial analysis and serious debate. There are very few places wherein such dialogue can now take location in an accessible manner. British Journalism overview is one in every of them.” Philip Schlesinger, college of Glasgow.

British Journalism overview is a discussion board for evaluation and debate, to monitor the media, put up the nice in addition to the worst to scrutiny, and to elevate the extent of the dialogue. It's far supposed to appeal now not best to newshounds, whether or not in newspapers, radio and tv, or on-line, but also to media academics and students and to everybody who cares about conversation
