About the Human Geography

Human Geography is broadly conceived to cowl topics starting from geopolitics, through cultural and economic troubles, to political ecology.The journal consciously favors political in addition to theoretically-primarily based articles from numerous left positions that clearly consist of socialism. Additionally the huge range of pressing social and political issues thrown up with the aid of capitalist globalization isn't being fully addressed. Some of the most primary troubles (like worldwide finance capitalism and the environmental disaster) are rarely cited in the present journals. Subsequently we favor a brand new, extra tremendous and politically inclusive magazine of broadly, however very politically, conceived Human Geography.
