About the International Journal of Offender Therapy and Comparative Criminology

Global Journal of Offender Therapy and Comparative Criminology (IJO), peer-audited and distributed month to month, for over fifty years has given advisors, instructors, specialists, scientific clinicians and therapists, crime analysts and strategy creators with testing research on subjects including; fierce wrongdoing, sexual culpable, abusive behavior at home, adolescent misconduct, criminal profiling, and hazard appraisal. There is an accentuation on the treatment of the wrongdoer - both as to hypothesis and for clinical practice.
