About the Journal on English Language Teaching

English Language Teaching is globally vibrant and dynamic today. English as an international language accommodates the unique needs of world communities while competing with and complementing other languages. ELT improves language skills, oral communication, memorization of paradigms, patterns, and vocabulary, with translation being used to test the acquired knowledge. i-manager's Journal on English Language Teaching aims to bring practitioners, researchers, curriculum designers and professionals in corporate communication and provide a forum where ELT practitioners and experts share new insights and experience in ELT
