About the Missiology: An International Review

As one of the premier scholarly, peer-reviewed journals of mission studies, Missiology is distinctively multi-disciplinary–covering history, theology, anthropology, communication theory, religious encounter, ecumenics, methodology. It is interconfessional–publishing works from Roman Catholic, conciliar, and conservative evangelical spheres. It is also practical–providing not just theoretical reflection, but applied mission science. This journal is a member of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE)
