About the Social Work Chronic

Social Work Chronicle, as the name of the journal denotes - this peer-reviewed bi-annual will always have a prime focus to exp practices across the globe with an aim to strengthen the base of Social Work literature and to enrich the scope of social work re on behalf of the weaker and deprived sections of the society by focusing majorly on research-based contribution on differen developmental initiatives across the globe and thus represents a consortium for pro-people policies. The ethos of the journal through disciplines of social work, women's studies, sociology, political science, economics, population studies, economics, kaleidoscopic views and thoughts of academicians, social workers, development professionals, research scholars and policy-ma for developmental research by providing guidelines to the policy-makers for better program design and implementation in the literary contribution. Last but not the least, the journal intends to encourage and assist young research scholars, faculties, d contributions – so that 'young mind' and 'Gen-Next Thinking' can be explored for the benefit of human society and in the conte
