About the Soft Skills

In the new economy of rapid technological change and increasing business complexity, organizations are striving for developing soft skills. This journal focuses on the application of various concepts of communication and behavioral aspects of personal effectiveness. The journal covers Corporate Communication (Corporate Communication), Interpersonal Communication and Global Communication (Cross-Cultural Communication). It is intended to be a medium of expression and exchange of ideas among soft skills trainers that would be of interest to academicians and practitioners. The journal will share their best practices.
