About the The CSR Journal

The CSR Journal is a digital and print news publication registered under Research Rating and Communication Pvt Ltd, headquartered out of Mumbai, India. We are a team of passionate and young journalists, led by experienced leaders, aiming to contribute by turning its readership into meaningful reactions, providing first-hand information to its readers. We work with policymakers, not-for-profit organisations, non-governmental organisations, leading corporate houses and various stakeholders. At The CSR Journal, we have created a hub of assertive actions by offering its readers with innovative, original and interactive news and feature stories.
The CSR Journal covers developments in and around the corporate social responsibility domain through timely news reporting. While monitoring on-goings through original insightful work, providing a value-adding impact.
