About the Indian Defence Review

Indian Defence Review is recommended reading by the Army, Navy, and the Air Force headquarters for officers and is considered "country's most prestigious defence publication". It not only "prides itself on being a sober, pragmatic, mainstream magazine", but is considered "a premier strategic affairs think-tank" that shapes policies in matters of security and defence industry. IDR won accolades as "India's best known military publication", and "the most impressive, useful and independent publication". It is the only journal from India that sells in bookshops worldwide.
