About the Medical Tourism Magazine

Medical Tourism provides authentic news, articles, interviews, facilities at hospitals, and features on cost-effective treatment, medical advances, disease prevention and alternative treatments such as Ayurveda. It will have comments and reviews by globally recognized medical experts in their specialised fields. It will also showcase products and services of the major players in the healthcare and tourism sectors. In short, it aims to create an awareness across the world about medical expertise and facilities of international standards that are available in Asia.
